About Daria Dillard Stone

Mentor, Award-Winning Author, International Motivational Speaker, and Minister, Daria Dillard Stone helps others measure their success by how many lives they have helped change. Her main focus remains on identifying what your challenges are, helping you to overcome what has temporarily overcome you, and launching your newly found strength and success to make you more purposeful and profitable. Daria believes, and stands by, people matter as much as profit!

Daria enjoys leading retreats, facilitating workshops, and her career as a vocalist in order to edify her audience with passion. She is best known for engaging, encouraging, and empowering her audience to be champions of courage, the reason for positive change, and supportive of all mankind. Whether you, or your audience, needs personal, professional, and/or spiritual transformation, Daria is the right fit for you.

Daria is a certified Family Development Specialist, with over 14 years of experience with PACE; and over 25 years of experience in organizing, mobilizing, and networking in various capacities. She is authentic, transparent, energized, humorous, and open-minded as she shares her life-altering experiences; which include, but not limited to: depression, divorce, death, and overall defeat. When you are ready to hear the truth, and nothing but the truth, contact Daria Dillard Stone today!

“A career is what you are paid for; a calling is what you are made for.”
